

Cecile (Ceil) Wendt Jensen is a Certified Genealogist<sup>SM</sup> and owner of Michigan Polonia. Author, educator, and researcher, Cecile is a native of Detroit. She is currently Vice-President of the Polish Genealogical Society of Michigan serving as their representative to the Federation of Genealogical Societies. Ceil is a graduate of Michigan State University holding a Masters Degree in Education and spent thirty years in K-12 education where she pioneered technology integration.

In 1998, Ceil began a transition from public education to genealogy and has become a featured international speaker. She has conducted research in Poland at libraries, civil and diocesan archives, and in local parishes. Ceil presents practical examples and suggestions on how to use records, databases and archives to start or advance your genealogical research while dispelling the myth that records were destroyed during the World Wars. She delights in helping researchers find their ancestral villages.

She is the lead developer of the Polonica Americana Research Institute on the historic Polish American campus of Orchard Lake, Michigan. Her published articles have appeared in National Genealogical Societies Magazine, Ancestry Magazine, FEEFHS Journal, Polish Genealogical Society of Michigan's Polish Eaglet, and online with Gen Dobry.

She had authored five books to date: Internet Lesson Plans (1994); Detroit's Polonia (2006); Detroit's Mount Elliott Cemetery (2006); Detroit's Mount Olivet Cemetery (2006); and Sto Lat: A Modern Guide to Polish Genealogy (2010).
