Begin with the known, work to the unknown

Step 1

Start with interviews or information from relatives and those who knew your ancestors

Step 2

Gather information from all available sources

- □ Census records
- □ Wills
- □ Deeds
- □ Photos
- □ Vital Records
- □ Newspapers
- □ City Directories
- □ Regional Histories
- □ Military and Pension Files
- □ Maps
- □ Websites
- □ Family Ephemera and Artifacts
- □ Letters, Diaries, Journals
- □ Immigration and Naturalization Records
- □ Cemetery Records and Tombstones
- \Box etc.

Step 3

Create a timeline using the information above and develop a storyboard ("chapters" of the ancestors' lives)

Step 4

Identify historical information to put ancestors into a context for the geographic location

- \Box Wars
- \Box Epidemics
- □ Elections and Political Events
- □ Changes of Geographic Boundaries
- □ Territories Becoming States
- □ Religious Events
- \Box Medical Advances

- □ Economic Conditions
- □ Weather Events
 - o Blizzards
 - o Hurricanes
 - o Floods
 - o Tornadoes
 - o Draughts
 - Meteor Showers
- □ Disasters
 - o Fires
 - o Earthquakes
- □ Regional Events
 - o Fairs, Expeditions, etc.
 - o Openings of Businesses
 - o Mass Migrations
 - o Discoveries
 - Gold
 - Creation of Landmarks, etc.
 - Railroads
 - Canals
 - Harbors

 \Box Etc.

Step 5

Combine the historical information with the ancestor's timeline to get a picture of the possible inter-relationship.

Step 6

Write out the combination of history and family data to show how your ancestor may have been affected by the various events.

Step 7

Combine/save the information:

- Put into keepsake books for family members
- Create narrative programs for family and community
- Add to the "notes" section in your genealogy program
 - Remember to clarify what is proven and what is speculation
- Use them to interest young folks in their (your) family history

Summary:

- Identify the record(s) of a particular ancestor and time period
- Research the geographic area
- Put these in context with the family
- Put it all in context with history
- Link it all to the rest of the person's life
