

Episode 16: Completing Your Research

5 Minute Challenge—Filter information through the circle of success!

Congratulations! You're on your way to becoming a first rate genealogist!

Here's what to do next:

1. Continue FILTERING YOUR INFORMATION through the "circle of success."
2. Use the HELP RESOURCES like wikis, forums, and family history centers.
3. Take the ONLINE COURSES at FamilySearch.org. These courses are fun, and will enhance your expertise in location, language, topic, and record type.
4. DON'T STOP NOW! Continue learning and using new resources and features online and at home to move your genealogy onward and upward!

Helpful hints:

ASK QUESTIONS! There is still a lot to learn.

Frame your questions so you know what you're looking for.

Use the "circle of success" every step of the way.

Vocabulary

Genealogical questions:

Two types:

1. Relationship:
Questions about a grandfather's spouse or a distant cousin's children.
2. Identity:
Questions about where your ancestor died, where they lived, when they married, etc.
