

My name is Ellen Miller.

I have been a reference librarian assistant with the Midwest Genealogy Center since 2006. I am a full time employee spending much of my workday helping people with their genealogy.

I live in the Kansas City, MO area.

I have two children, both married and five grandchildren.

