Bibliography & Online Links to accompany:
NEWSPAPER RESEARCH:
Finding the Sources, Finding the Facts

Copyright 2007, Gary R. Toms
Genealogy Reference Assistant, Midwest Genealogy Center Independence, Missouri
www.midwestgenealogycenter.org

U.S. Newspaper Project:
U.S. Newspaper Program: http://www.neh.gov/projects/usnp.html

Example of a state-level site which you can find via the U.S. Newspaper Program site (Missouri):
http://shs.umsystem.edu/newspaper/

Missouri Digital Heritage, newspaper page:
http://www.sos.mo.gov/mdh/browse.asp?id=22

National Digital Newspaper Program:
http://www.neh.gov/projects/ndnp.html

Chronicling America is the site to access many of the resulting digital files from program:
http://chroniclingamerica.loc.gov/

USGS Place Name Server (United States Geologic Survey) is good source to research place names: http://geonames.usgs.gov/pls/gnispublic/f?p=127:1:2183000997456766

WorldCat site provides search of many library catalogs in a single search:
http://www.worldcat.org/

Search the Family History Library catalog at:
http://www.familysearch.org/eng/Library/FHLC/frameset_fhlc.asp

Search PerSI (Periodical Source Index) on Heritage Quest:
http://www.heritagequestonline.com/hqoweb/library/do/index or via your public library site
PerSI is also available through Ancestry.com

Information articles and guides about using PerSI:
http://www.ancestry.com/search/rectype/periodicals/persi/about.aspx
http://www.olivetreegenealogy.com/articles/persi.shtml
http://genealogy.about.com/cs/publications/p/persi.htm

BOOK: Newspaper Indexes: A Location and Subject Guide for Researchers, by Anita Cheek
Milner (three volumes; Scarecrow Press, 1977+)