Dear Copyright Owner/Agent,

Genealogical Society of Utah (GSU) is an incorporated, non-profit educational institution dedicated to providing access to recorded genealogical data for use by family historians, genealogists, and others who have interest in such information. In order for GSU to increase the volume of genealogical information GSU makes available to the public at no cost, GSU requests permission to use all past and future volumes and versions of the following Materials.

PERMISSION REQUESTED

GSU requests permission to use and to sub-license (i.e., allow others to use) your Materials for an unlimited period of time, including, but not limited to, permission to

- (a) reproduce your Materials in any media now known or later developed, including permission to reproduce digital copies of your Materials;
- (b) prepare derivative works based upon your Materials, including permission to reformat, extract data, index, create research aids, edit, incorporate, and/or translate your Materials;
- (c) distribute copies of your Materials to the public, including permission to circulate or lend copies of your Materials; and
- (d) perform or display your Materials publicly including by means of broadcast or digital transmission on an unlimited number of computers and computer workstations.

EXAMPLES

What follows are examples of how GSU may use your Materials. Because GSU cannot anticipate all future needs or technologies, GSU may use your Materials in many other ways not set forth in these examples.

Example 1: GSU may duplicate your Materials so that your Materials can be loaned to GSU's global network of family history centers.

Example 2: GSU may extract information from your Materials so that your Materials can be searched more readily or so that vital statistics from your Materials can be incorporated into a common pedigree-type database.

Example 3: GSU may digitally scan your Materials so that your Materials can be posted on the Internet and made accessible to registered genealogical researchers around the world.

YOUR RIGHTS

Please note that the permission you grant GSU does not in any way limit or change the rights you own in your Materials. You may, therefore, continue to use your Materials in any way you so choose.

Thank you for your kind consideration of this request.

Sincerely,

Legal Services
